

St James Infirmary

(based on Traditional/Louis Armstrong Arlo Guthrie)

Key Dm BPM =66 4/4 time

INTRO SAX

(V1)

Dm A7 Dm
It was down by old Joe's barroom,
Dm Bb7 A7
on the corner of the square.
Dm A7 Dm
They were serving drinks as usual,
Bb7 A7 Dm
and the usual crowd was there.

(V2)

Dm A7 Dm
On my left stood Big Joe Mc-Kennedy,
Dm Bb7 A7
and his eyes were bloodshot red
Dm A7 Dm
And he turned his face to the people,
Bb7 A7 Dm
These were the very words he said:

(Pause and Fiddles Shimmering)

(V3)

Dm A7 Dm
They called me from St. James in-firmary,
Dm Bb7 A7
Told me my lady was there.
Dm A7 Dm
Found her stretched out on a long white table,
Bb7 A7 Dm
Looking sweet, cool and so fair.

(V4)

Dm A7 Dm
I looked up at the doctor,
Dm Bb7 A7
"She's been very low," he said.
Dm A7 Dm
Gave me a note from my baby,
Bb7 A7 Dm
Then I knew, that she was dead.

(Doc said:)

CHORUS

(V5)

Dm A7 Dm
Joe Let her go, let her go, God bless her.
Dm Bb7 A7
For wherever her spirit may be.
Dm A7 Dm
You may search this whole wide world over,
Bb7 A7 Dm
Never find a sweeter girl than she.

(The note said): Netts or Gaelle

(V6)

Dm A7 Dm
When I die, bury me in Gucci shoes,
Dm Bb7 A7
I want my blue coat and favourite hat.
Dm A7 Dm
I've put money across the bar to Old Joe
Bb7 A7 Dm
He'll make sure, the Cham-pagne ain't flat.

(V7)

Dm A7 Dm
Get my girls to es-cort my coffin,
Dm Bb7 A7
Looking fabulous, and dressed in black,
Dm A7 Dm
Seven Girls are going to that Graveyard,
Bb7 A7 Dm
Only Six are coming back.

INSTRUMENTAL: Harp & Fiddles.

CHORUS:

(V8)

Dm A7 Dm
I gotta let her go, let her go, God bless her.
Dm Bb7 F A7
Wherever she may be,
She'd said: (Netts to Solo & Finish)

Dm A7 Dm
"You may search this whole wide world over,
Bb7 A7 Dm
And never find a sweeter girl than me".

St James Infirmary

GUITAR CAPO ON 5

Key Dm BPM =66 4/4 time

(V1)

Am E7 Am
It was down by old Joe's barroom,
Am F7 E7
on the corner of the square.
Am E7 Am
They were serving drinks as usual,
F7 E7 Am
and the usual crowd was there.

(V2) Am E7 Am
On my left stood Big Joe Mc-Kennedy,
Am F7 E7
and his eyes were bloodshot red.

Am E7 Am
And he turned his face to the people,
F7 E7 Am
these were the very words he said:

(V2) Am E7 Am
They called me, from St. James in-firmary,
Am F7 E7
Told me my lady was there.

Am E7 Am
Found her stretched out, on a long white table,
F7 E7 Am
Looking sweet, cool and so fair.

(V4) Am E7 Am
I looked up at the doctor,
Am F7 E7
"She's been very low," he said.

Am E7 Am
Gave me a note from my baby,
F7 E7 Am
Then I knew, that she was dead.

(Doc said:)

CHORUS

Am E7 Am
Joe let her go, let her go, God bless her.
Am F7 E7
For wherever her spirit may be.
Am E7 Am
You may search this whole wide world over,
F7 E7 Am
Never find a sweeter girl than she.

(The note said): Netts or Gaelle

(V5)

Am E7 Am
When I die, bury me in Gucci shoes,
Am F7 E7
I want my blue coat and favourite hat.
Am E7 Am
I've put money, across the bar to Old Joe
F7 E7 Am
He'll make sure, the Cham-pagne ain't flat.

(V6)

Am E7 Am
Get my girls to es-cort my coffin,
Am F7 E7
Looking fabulous, and dressed in black,
Am E7 Am
Seven Girls are going to that Graveyard
F7 E7 Am
Only Six are coming back

INSTRUMENTAL: Harp & Fiddles.

CHORUS:

Am E7 Am
I gotta let her go, let her go, God bless her.
Am F7 C E7
Wherever she may be,
She'd said: (Netts to Solo & Finish)

Am E7 Am
"You may search this whole wide world over
F7 E7 Am
And never find a sweeter girl than me"